Dear Dr Ayers:

Re: Reference ID = 'REF2011-347-38' [SEC=UNCLASSIFIED] Email to you

Mr Robert (Bob) Brock made a request of you in his email dated December 13th, 2011. In response he received an email sent by the National Climate Centre - Bureau of Meteorology on Monday, January 16th, 2012. That was presumably on your behalf.

Bob requested my comments on the email he received. Recalling the email I feel disappointed, concerned, alarmed and appalled. It fails to meet needs for integrity, reassurance and accountability. From what I've seen, the BOM's reply misrepresents climate science. Or at best, the BOM's reply apparently on your behalf shows an alarming lack of understanding of science, data analysis, causation and due diligence.

My concerns were documented in an email sent to you yesterday. A copy is enclosed. Hoping that you value integrity, I will be grateful for your response to my email's questions and requests at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,
