Subject: 1 Is the Ombudsmans Office a toothless tiger or is it wilfully ignorant?

The Ombudsman's Office
To whom It may concern,

Recently an officer from the Ombudsmans Office (OO) replied UNSUBSCRIBE, UNSUBSCRIBE, UNSUBSCRIBE in response to the emailed poster shown here. <http://www.galileomovement.com.au/docs/jr/NonInteracticePosterForDecember1931.pdf>

What was the individual Ombudsman officers problem regarding the poster? As you and everyone else can see, the evidence on the poster clearly shows that the Australian Bureau of Meteorology has retrospectively adjusted its data so that their historical record shows the 1930's as significantly cooler than it actually was. Why did they do that? The evidence indicates that over a considerable period of time the BoM has been embroiled in a politically driven, global, funding fraud. However, it seems that an individual officer in the OO can keep him/herself wilfully ignorant of the maladroitness and procedures of a government organisation without legal repercussions.

But, for some years now we have been submitting formal complaints to the OO regarding the maladroitness of the 'previous' Department for Climate Change', now merged into the 'Department for the Environment', The particular officer mentioned above, dealt with some of those. The complaints can be seen here bit.ly/tgm-j However, to synthesis, our formal complaint was about two issues (1) the misleading graphic representation of the transparent life-essential gas, carbon dioxide, as black, and (2) the use of the misleading terms "carbon pollution" and 'carbon emissions'. As you can see, the OO has given more or less the same arrogant, bland, brush off response every time.

Therefore, there are some questions that need to be raised here:

1. Can the OO legally keep itself wilfully ignorant of the maladroit practices and procedures in other government departments? It certainly turned a blind eye to the evidence Dr Curtis and I presented here 'Citizens Holding Government Accountable' at the above link.
2. As the Ombudsman's job is to ensure that the policies and procedures of other government departments are just, fair, and truthful would it not be a dereliction of duty if they knowingly allowed a government department to deceive the people?
3. If the OO continues to protect misleading possibly fraudulent policies and procedures of organisations such as the BoM does it mean that the OO has a fraudulent ideology also?
4. Given the above why doesn't the Abbott Government simply disband the OO? Its a toothless tiger at the very best. At the worst, its behaviour jeopardises Australia's democracy.

The reason why the OO is a threat to Australia's democracy is this. In the 2013 federal elections the people used their democratic right to vote for their preferred political party. We used that vote to overwhelmingly usher in the Abbott government. The main reason was because it promised to rid our country of the 'carbon tax' and all its dysfunctional hangers on.

But now, whole government departments such as the OO undermine the incumbent Abbott government. If these departments continue supporting the maladroit policies of a previous failed government they are behaving against the wishes of the people, and hence our democracy.

It will take years for the Abbott government to clean up the upper echelons of the Federal Public Service, our scientific organisations and our universities. But in our humble opinion the corruption and its threat to our democracy is real. Please take note.

Respectfully yours

Dr Judy Ryan
