

The Bureau of Meteorology has been systematically adjusting the historical temperature record for Regional Australia to fit with the political global warming narrative. Below is the Victorian city of Rutherglen's temperature record before and after the BOM's adjustments.

To follow the public letter discussion type galileomovement into your browser. When on webpage click on 'scientific facts' then select 'holding them accountable' from LH menu and scroll down to the Public letter to Karoly

To see the rest of the graphs and follow the investigation go to <http://bit.ly/kensrutherglen>

Feel Free to Take me home and follow the links